

Compliance Certificate

ZF 4031

We herewith declare that components of articles launched to the market by KUHN RIKON AG, being intended to come in contact with food are manufactured in compliance with directive EC 1935/2004.

Stainless steel components are being manufactured from grades 1.4301, 1.4016, 1.4526, or iron, and are in compliance with directive EC 1935/2004.

Iron components are being manufactured in compliance with directive EC 1935/2004.

Aluminium or cast aluminium components are being manufactured in compliance with European Standard EN 601, EN 602 and EN 14392, respectively.

Coatings being intended to come in contact with food are manufactured in compliance with directive EC 1935/2004.

Plastic components are consisting of one of the material types polyethylene, polypropylene, polyoxymethylene, polyamide and ABS and are in accordance with the positive list given in directive EC 1935/2004.

Electrical and electronical articles are manufactured according to directives 2002/96/EC (WEEE) and 2002/95/EC (RoHS), respectively.

The validity of this certificate is void in case of non intended use of the article or it's unauthorised modification.

CH-8486 Rikon, 06.11.2008

H.P.Brühlmann

KUHN RIKON AG
Vice – President
Quality Management and Customer Service